Creative Explorations

For my final project component, I want to create a digital art of a quote that relates to the findings of my interviews and art as a visual representation of the quote. As I do with anything that I need inspiration for, I went to Pinterest and searched music art. There were a lot of options to choose from but I selected a few that really inspired me for my project.